

About PCBA

The Pacific Coast Baptist Association emphasizes historic Baptist principles:

priesthood of all believers soul competency

biblical authority

autonomy of the local church separation of church and state

PCBA's programs are participated in by members and congregations related to three different Regional bodies in Northern California. The Association includes member congregations and informally-related congregations which share in the offerings of the Association.

To Learn More

To find out more about the work and program of PCBA

Visit our webpage

pcba.org

Email us at info@pcba.org

Write to us

Pacific Coast Baptist Association

200 La Casa Via

Walnut Creek, CA 94598

PCBA Notes

PCBA Notes, the association's newsletter, is published four times a year. It is available in three formats:

- a mailed newsletter
- a bulletin insert for churches
- an on-line newsletter

To subscribe, contact:

Newsletter@pcba.org

What PCBA Does

- promotes communication and relationship between members and congregations
- sponsors a monthly luncheon with speakers on subjects of interest and concern to the mission of the church
- collects and ships theological and general reference books to Central Philippine University
- supports mission endeavors of related organizations, including American Baptist Seminary of the West and the Seafarers Ministry of the Golden Gate
- provides ordination examination for ministerial candidates
 - cooperates with other organizations in sponsoring Christian Education and youth programs
- presents an annual conference on topics dealing with church life, community and social concern, and personal spirituality

Pacific Coast Baptist Association
200 La Casa Via
Walnut Creek, CA 94598

A group of American Baptist congregations, clergy, and laity in fellowship since 1997